How Successful are Roncalli Freshmen?

A No-Cut Policy for Freshmen? Freshmen making the Varsity Teams? Opportunities are endless!!

Where else can you find this kind of success as a Freshman in High School Athletics? Yes, the answer is Roncalli Catholic High School. The Class of 2009 made an incredible impact on the Athletic programs here at Roncalli Catholic. Out of a class of 84 students, 17 of these students experienced Varsity level athletics. And six of these students experienced this in two or more programs.

The Athletic programs here at Roncalli Catholic compete at the Class B level. Many of these students experienced competition from various Metro programs. This is an opportunity that not too many freshmen around the Metro area can say they have had.

Roncalli Catholic Athletics proves to have youth and a promising future as we look at the age of its participants.

Not only did these students compete at this level, but at an early age. This only gives them a taste of what their future could bring for them on the field and the courts of Roncalli

Athletics. It shows that opportunities await students at Roncalli no matter the age.

Below are the students that experienced varsity competition at an early age. Two of these students, Karyn Bixler & Emily Finley experienced the Varsity level of competition in three sports.
